LEGISLATURE TAKES BEVENGE.

California Solons Bore on Sacramento Newspapers and May Remove the Capital.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., March 12.-The State Legislature last evening passed through both houses a resolution to submit to the people a constitutional amendment, removing the capital to San Jose, providing the latter city should deed to the State ten acres of land and a bonus of $1,000,000. The action, though hasty, appears to have been in earnest. The animus of the resolution was an article in a Sacramento evening paper headed, "Thank God the Legislature will soon adjourn," and professing to recite various misdeeds and mistakes of the Legislature. The article was read in the Senate and the resolutions passed promptly. Being transmitted to the Assembly it first failed of the necessary two-thirds majority, but a call of the house was ordered, the doors were closed and the Sergeant-at-arms dispatched to arrest absentee members. A number were routed from bed, brought to the assembly chamber and the required vote thus finally

CLINTON'S LOSS BY FIRE.

No Water Protection and $35,000 Worth of Property Goes Up in Smoke. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

CLINTON, Ind., March 12.-At 10 o'clock last night the Clinton mill caught fire and the flames spread rapidly, being fanned by high wind. Three residences were soon ignited and destroyed. The families had plenty of time to escape with a little furniture. The mills and elevator of W. H. Robinson & Co., were burned. Loss on mill, $18,000; $8,000 insurance. On the warehouse the loss is $15,000, with thirty thousand bushels of wheat damaged. The loss on residences was $1,500; companies not known. The C. & E. I. railway lost two box cars. The mill caught first, probably in the engine room. By the utmost exertions of the switch and train crews a train of loaded coal cars were saved, although four were blazing when run out. The town is without fire protection and it was only by the heroic efforts of the citizens that the north end of town was saved. The Terre Haute fire department was called, but did not get here in time to be of assistance. A strong wind was blow-ing and shifted only in time to save the elevator and depot.

SEYMOUR, Ind., March 12 .- An enthusiastic business men's meeting was held at the opera house Friday night to hear the report of the committee which had been appointed at a previous meeting to confer with the Seymour Manufacturing Company and have that firm remain here. The company has agreed to remain, and to put up new buildings to cost between $9,000 and $12,000 near the railroad, providing the city would exempt it from taxes for ten years. The Council has agreed to do this, and parties have donated six acres of land, on which the new works will be erected.

Leads to a Double Tragedy, in a New England Town, on the Way from Church.

UNREQUITED LOVE

QUINCY, Mass., March 12.-Unrequited love and jealousy caused a probable murder and suicide at Quincy to-day. The principals in the tragedy were Mary Victoria Lafave, a comely lass of eighteen, and Joseph Massey, aged about thirty. Th had been to mass, returning home unattended Massey, who had been waiting for her, followed her. A score or more of people were behind her. When the girl had reached a point opposite the entrance to the old Miller estate, commonly known as the Stile, Massey was seen to step up, and, without any warning, draw a revolver and fire three shots in rapid succession, which were followed by a scream from the girl. The whole affair came so suddenly that the eyewitnesses for a moment paid no attention to Massey, who, after doing the shooting, did not stop to see the result, but turned and walked leisurely away. Several men started for him, but before he could be overtaken he placed the revolver to his head and fired, the ball entering just above and back of the right ear. Without a word he fell over on a bank of snow and expired in about ten minutes. The girl was carried to her home, and doctors found that all the shots had taken through the left One passed wrist, the other two entered the middle of the back, a little to the left of the spinal column, between the ninth and eleventh ribs, fracturing the ninth rib. One of the bullets lodged in the left lung, and one in the abdomen. Physicians do not have much hopes of her recovery. The girl was employed in a shoe manufactory, and Massey, up to within nine months, had been employed in the same factory. He made the threat that, if the girl did not marry him, she would not marry any one else, as he would shoot her first, which threat he put into execution to-day.

THE PANAMA SENSATION.

Mme. Cettu's Story Cannot Be Discredited -Bourgeois Insists on His Resignation.

Paris, March 12.-The sensation caused by Madame Cottu's testimony yesterday does not abate. The attempt to propagate the opinion that she was animated by a desire to avenge the sentence of her husband when she gave her evidence against the | pers who are seeking appointments. government has failed completely. The Gaulois publishes an interview with her in which she says that she was actuated merely by a determination to tell the truth regardless of personal interests or domestic affections. M. Soiniury, the police official who tried to get from Mme. Cottu documents compromising Royalist Deputies, has resigned from the directory of the penitentiary department. PoliceCommissaire Nicolle, who arranged the interview between him and Mme. Cottu, will be dismissed. Deputy Despres has given notice that he will interpellate the government in the Chamber of Deputies as to Mme. Cottu's evidence. ident will observe the as In the Senate M. Moris will make a similar ing of the higher offices.

The Cabinet crisis inaugurated by the resignation of M. Bourgeois has been shown to-day to be beyond hope of repair by patchwork. At a Cabinet meeting, this morning, the Ministers agreed that every effort should be made to induce M. Bourgeois to reconsider his resignation, and, in the hope that the efforts would be successful, it was decided that no new Minister should be appointed until M. Bourgeois should have given evidence in the Assizes Court and should have explained to the Deputies his position. If M. Bourgeois should still insist then upon his retirement another Minister should be appointed, but this was regarded as an improbable event of the crisis.

This afternoon several Ministers called upon M. Bourgeois, but when the Cabinet reassembled this evening M. Ribot announced that M. Bourgeois had been deaf to all argument, and had insisted that he would not return to office. Subsequently, at M. Ribot's request, President Carnot signed a decree giving to M. De Ville temporarily M. Bourgeois's portfolio.

Ministers are awaiting, with intense anxiety, the event of M. Bourgeois's appearance on the witness stand, in the Panama trial, to-morrow. The general conviction is that M. Soinoury would never have taken the steps he took without the cognizance of the Cabinet, and, perhaps, also, of M. Carnot. The developments of tomorrow are awaited with feverish expectancy. The excitement to-day has not been exceeded since the beginning of the Panama disclosures. It is thought that only good luck can save the Ribot Ministry.

Another Batch of Appointments to Be Handed Down To-Day or To-Morrow-Other Political Gossip Interesting to Democrats.

TO BE OR NOT TO BE. That Is the Question Which Is Just Now Agitating Hoosier Democrats.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, March 12. - President Cleveland's second lot of nominations is expected to go to the Senate to-morrow of Tuesday. Senator Cockrell, of Missouri, who is one of the leading spirits of the Senate caucus committee, says the committee will make known the majority members of Senate committees on Tuesday, and that the nominations which the President has ready may be withheld until the committees are announced. The nominations anticipated are ex-Congressman Wheeler, of Michigan, for Commissioner of Pensions; ex-Congressman Peel, of Arkansas, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and ex-Congressman McAdoo, of New Jersey, Assistant Secretary of the Navy. It is believed that ex-Secretary Bayard's name as minister to Great Britain will go in at an early day, although his friends here say he has declined it. It is still believed that Frederick R. Condert, of New York, will go as minister to France. It is asserted with a good deal of positiveness that ex-Congressman C. C. Matson, of Indiana, or ex-Congressman Albert Willis, of Louisville, will be nominated as Commissioner of In-

There has been little seen or heard of the Indiana office seekers to-day. Washington gives strict observance to the Sabbath and even the anxious place hunters could find neither comfort nor companions in the hotel lobbies. The few Hoosier Democrats who came out of their rooms expressed great concern over the possibilities in the new Cleveland code of rules announced in Saturday's Journal special for the government of office seekers. The President is adding to the code every day new ideas, which drive terror to the hearts of still other classes of aspirants. The President has now announced that he will not appoint editors to places except in isolated instances.

WHY HE IS "AGIN" EDITORS. He declares that President Harrison subsidized the press by giving offices to many editors and owners of papers, and that since the Democratic press severely criticised that action it would not be consistent for him new to follow the same course. President Cleveland believes the press should be untrammeled, free to criticise an administration, and that when there is praise of an administration's work it should not come through office-holding quills and subsidized sources. This would supear to be a damper on the ambitions of editors Morss and Shanklin, Crittenberger of the Anderson Democrat, Higgs of the Connersville Examiner, and a host of other editors or proprietors of Indiana newspa-

The decision is also to be made particularly applicable to newspaper men who desire to be postmasters in their towns. Mr. Bissell has had the names of some country editors presented to him in connection with various postoffices, but has uniformiv declined to give any encouragement to the office seeker. He lays down the principle that in small towns all the utterances of the newspaper which the postmaster-editor presides over will be regarded as the views of the administration, while, on the other hand, all praise of Mr. Cleveland's acts will be discounted because it emanates from the recipient of official favor. Therefore Mr. Bissell does not propose to appoint any editors to be postmasters, and the President will observe the same rule in dispos-

In this connection it will be interesting to Indiana Democrats, especially those of the Gray-Voorhees school, to learn that the statement is made here on apparently good authority that Gil Shanklin went to New York from Washington last week to perfect arrangements for the establishment of an afternoon Democratic newspaper at Indianapolis. It is stated further that Mr. Shanklin has strong financial backing, and that should be establish his venture he will have the support of some of the strongest Democratio business men at Indianapolis. The numerous Hoosiers who are seeking the second auditorship of the treasury will learn with sorrow that Secretary Carlisle, when he was the other day presented with Second Auditor Patterson's resignation, informed Patterson that the resignation would not be accepted till the four years of his commission were up, next August. This would indicate that it is useless to seek positions of that character until a vacancy is imminent. Ex-Doorkeeper Glazebrook, well known about the Legislature, and an influential Starke county Democrat, is the latest to arrive. He has not yet made known his ambition. John Holtzman, of Indianapolis, is in the city on his way to New York. He will lend a helping hand to some of his friends who are striving for places.

Hughes East, who was register of the United States land office at Yankton, S. D. under Cleveland four years ago, who is a well-known Hoosier, and who was for a time Vice President Hendricks's private secretary, is here, and claims to have suggested to President Cleveland the idea of "turning the old rascals out" by refusing to reappoint the men who once held office four years ago. It appears, however, that Hughes did not intend to bring about the rule which has been established, and which bars himself out of office. He wrote Mr. Cleveland shortly after the election, explaining that while he was against him in the campaign for nomination he was glad that he (Cleveland) was to be President, and it was to be hoped that there "would be a new deal all around." Mr. Cleveland took him at his word, and so Hughes "presses brick" in Washington without hope of reward.

ing of Republicans since the defeat of Harrison and the casting out of power of the Republican party, more than ordinary solicitude is being attached to it by those who hope for an immediate reorganization of the party and the opening of the campaign of 1894. The executive committee at its meeting in New York Monday night will doubtless discuss the merits of the five candidates for the presidency of the league—Joseph B. Foraker, of Ohio; W. W. Gray, of Illinois; Col. E. A. McAlpine, of New York; James S. Clarkson, of Iowa, and J. B. Patton, of Michigan. DIDN'T GO TO CHURCH.

Cleveland in No Hurry to Select His Style of Religion for the Coming Four Years. WASHINGTON, March 12.-If President Cleveland has selected his church home in Washington he gave no evidence of that choice to-day. He did not attend divine worship, but spent the morning quietly resting from the arduous duties of his first week in office. Some attention was paid to matters of pressing importance, and Private Secretary Thurber remained in the office the better part of the day. A little after 3 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland went for a drive, and for more than an hour en-joyed the beauty of a day that was perfect. Vice President Stevenson, accompanied by Mrs. Stevenson, attended the morning service at the New York-avenue Presbyterian Church, which is the same they attended during the previous Democratic administration. Mr. Stevenson has not yet selected a pew, but to-day occupied that of Mr. Noble Larner. In the afternoon, accompanied by Judge Lawrence, of the Court of Claims, and Mr. Lewis Stevenson, his son, the Vice President took an extended stroll. World's Fair Watchman Fatally Shoots Two Wemen and Turns the Weapon on Himself.

CHICAGO, March 12 .- Z. S. Kyes, a watchman at the world's fair grounds, to-night fatally shot his wife and Mrs. Mary Weir, a neighbor. He then turned his revolver against himself and sent a bullet into his breast, inflicting a wound which may prove fatal. Kyes came home drunk, and going into the room where Mrs. Weir was nursing his wife, who was ill and in bed, he threw his heavy overcoat on the bed. Mrs. Weir objected, and pulled the coat off. Kyes threw it. back again, and when Mrs. Weir attempted to pull it off he chased her from the room and ired two shots at her, both taking effect.

Mrs. Kyes was aroused by the shooting and came running out of the bedroom, and Kyes immediately shot her in the left side.

He then attempted to commit suicide, and was taken to the hospital. There is a small chance of his recovery, but both women will die.

I like Buffalo, have always been well treated by the athletic club there, composed of the most energetic men I ever met, and if they undertake to bring this affair off they will do so successfully. Our Great State Department Revokes Ex-President Harrison's Order.

Steerage Traffic with European Ports Once More Resumed and the Horde of Illiterate Immigrants Will Begin to Pour In.

Cleveland Foxily Refrains from Saving What Will Be Done with Hawaii.

Anxious to Cast Discredit on the Former Administration-Hot Debate Likely on the Senatorial Appointments in the West.

THEY WILL COME WITH A RUSH, The Ban Against Immigration Raised by the New Administration.

WASHINGTON, March 12.-The Treasury Department is officially advised by the Department of State that steerage traffic between European ports and the United States, which was discontinued on Jan. 1 last, has been resumed. United States Consul Gardner, at Rotterdam, in a report to the State Department, gives a detailed account of the precautions taken there to prevent the emigration of persons affected with contagions disease. He states that all steerage passengers are examined by the consular doctors, their baggage disinfeeted by consular employes, and a certification of both passenger and baggage made by the consul. In addition to the safeguards against transmission of disease afforded by the local system of examination made immediately before embarkation a new hotel designed exclusively for the accommodation of steerage and second-class passengers en route for the United States has been built. This hotel is known as the "Nasm," and is owned by the Netherlands-American company, and is solely under its management. It contains all the modern conveniences of a first-class hostelry, with an experienced steward, assisted by waiters and guards. The hotel is located in the immediate neighborhood of the docks. There are separate rooms for families and single persons. The beds are like cabin beds on shipboard, but larger. The sanitary arrangements are of the most modern construction, and, as the hotel is located on a square, its light is accesible from all sides. A coffee room, where only temperance beverages are sold at a minimum cost, is also provided. The entire control of this building, according to Dutch laws, is in the hands of the Commissioner of Emigration, and the United States consul has free access to the building. A hospital room in a building apart from the hotel has also been provided, where any diseased suspect may be at once wholly isolated. QUARANTINE PRECAUTIONS.

In addition to all these precautions taken at the hotel, all steerage passengers destined for the United States from Rotterdam are met at meoming trains by officers and servants of the steamship company and by boat are at once transferred to the hotel adjacent to the steamship wharf, there to reman under such surveillance as may be necessary until the next steamer sails. Should the need at any time arrive it will be possible to quarantine 600 or 800 people at the hotel quite as easily as though they were on shipboard. This could not be done by the best regulated emigrant boarding house, and from a sanitary point of view it is decidedly advantageous. Consul Gardner states that within the past three or four years the rate of steer-age sailing from Rotterdam to New York has increased in the ratio of the added restrictions upon immigration imposed by the United States authorities. The for steerage in 1891 was $20,40.

He states that all vessels sailing from Hamburg for ports in the United States, before they can obtain their bill of health, must be thoroughly disintected according to the instructions of the United States marine hospital service. This disinfection is superintended by Dr. W. L. Homann, a Hamburg government surgeon, who uses the Hamburg police department seal on his certificates of disinfection. Further, the crews of vessels carrying immigrants are medically examined by Dr. Homann and Dr. Nass, a deputy of Dr. Jenkius, the health officer in New York. These physiclans issue a joint certificate at this examination. All passengers not occupying the saloon are examined. This examination is in the presence of the consulor vice-consul, and a certificate to that effect is annexed to the passenger manifest of the vessel. Both of the physicians issue a certificate besides, which declares the passengers to be in good heath and free from all infections diseases. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, March 12.-By his withdrawal from the Senate of the proposed treaty of annexation of Hawaii President Cleveland has not disclosed his policy toward that project. He has merely done all that he could to rob the Harrison administration of whatever prestige might at tach to the acquisition of the Hawaiian Islands under conditions which arose and terms which were formulated while Mr. Harriscr was still in the White House, Mr. Cleveland has not yet declared, even to those closest to him, what his policy will be. The only indication that he has given has been to express disappointment that the last Congress failed to pass the resolution providing for the appointment of a commission to visit Honolulu and inquire into the exact state of public feeling there. It is quite within the power of the State Department, by direction of the President, to send a special envoy or envoys to the Hawaiian Islands, or for the Senate to be a commission for that purpose. If this were done, of course annexation or the establishment of a protectorate would necessarily be postponed until the reassembling of Congress. The Hawaiian commissioners, who are now in Washington, are impatient. Inasmuch as they have already declared their willingness, in case the United States Great Britain for the protection of her flag, the peril of this procrastination beand Princess Kamlani (Miss Cleghorne) are baving a merry time seeing the sights at
